First Selectman Announces James A. Walters as the New Greenwich Police Chief

February 27, 2003 ... First Selectman Richard V. Bergstresser today announced that James A. Walters has been named the new Chief of Police for the Town of Greenwich. Chief Walters, who was Deputy Chief for Criminal Investigations in the Greenwich Police Department, also has served as the Acting Chief of Police since November 1, 2002.

Chief Walters joined the Greenwich Police Department in 1981 as a police officer, and, in addition to Acting Police Chief and Deputy Chief, he has held other management positions, including Lieutenant and Captain of the Patrol Division, Captain of General Services and Sergeant of Criminal Investigations Division.

“After a thorough evaluation process, I have selected Chief Walters as the most outstanding candidate to lead the Greenwich Police Force,” said Mr. Bergstresser. “I congratulate him, and I am confident that his leadership skills will serve our Town well as our Police Department continues to focus not just on Greenwich, but on world events that have affected us and will continue to affect us deeply.”
