

Celebrate National Women's Health Day With Us At The Greenwich Town Hall Monday May 10th 2004

Throughout the afternoon of May 10th beginning at 1:00 PM, Greenwich Hospital and Greenwich Department of Health staff will be at Town Hall, along with health practitioners who serve our town, in order to provide a FREE HEALTH EDUCATION AND SCREENING PROGRAM FOR WOMEN.

1PM to 4 PM

Women's Health Information and Screening Booths

Gisborne & Mazza Conference Rooms: 1st Floor - Greenwich Town Hall

Women's Health Information and Screening

Blood Pressure Screening

Osteoporosis Screening

Dental/Oral Cancer Screening

Natural Medicine Approaches to Wellness for Women

Body Compositional Analysis

Domestic Violence/Sexual Assault Counselors (Bilingual)

Skin Cancer Awareness

Breast Health and Breast Self Exams

Nutrition Counseling

Foot Health Issues/Choosing properly fitting shoes

Smoking Cessation

2:30 PM -3:30 PM Women's Metabolic Syndrome Testing

Health Department Clinic Suite: 3rd Floor - Greenwich Town Hall

Total Cholesterol/Blood Sugar

Height/Weight

Waist Size Measurement

2:00 PM-6:00 PM Women's STD/HIV Counseling and Testing

Greenwich Department of Health HIV/STD Confidential Clinic

Greenwich Town Hall - Health Department Suite - 3rd Floor

National Women's Health Day participants include:

Greenwich Department of Health, Greenwich Health at Greenwich Hospital, Greenwich Hospital Association, Hawley Lane Shoes: Educational Outreach Program, Natural Medicine and Wellness Center, Sexual Assault Crisis and Education Center, Inc., Greenwich Domestic Abuse Center/YWCA, The Nathaniel Witherell

For information call Stephanie Paulmeno at (203) 622-7849 or Silvia Hasselt at (203) 863-3789