FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
August 9, 2007

Officer of the Month

The Greenwich Police Department would like to announce that Detectives Charles Brown and Jeffrey Stempien have been selected as recipients for the Officer of the Month for August 2007.

On September 2, 1991 at approximately 5:43 A.M., members of the Uniformed Division responded to a residence on Valley Road in Cos Cob on a report of an alleged violent sexual assault committed by two subjects.

The case, which has remained open and unsolved with no suspects identified, recently became an active investigation during May 2007 when the department received notification from the Connecticut State Police Forensic Lab DNA Database Unit, indicating that a match between DNA profiles from forensic samples in the State of National DNA Databases had occurred.

The new information resulted in identifying one of the suspects allegedly responsible for the violent sexual assault.

Through additional investigative efforts and interviews conducted by Detectives Brown and Stempien, a second suspect was developed and later identified using the CSP Forensic Lab DNA Unit.

Detectives Brown and Stempien resourcefulness, skill and dedication led to identifying and arresting two suspects for the 15 year old violent sexual assault case and bring some closure for the victim.

Congratulations, to Detective Brown and Stempien on a job well done.
