FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
January 3, 2008

The Greenwich Police Department has selected Detective Christopher Webster and Neighborhood Resource Officers Keith Hirsch and Robert McKiernan as its recipients of the Officer of the Month award for January 2008.

On September 30, 2007 at approximately 7:32 A.M., members of the Uniformed Services Division were detailed to the area of 137 South Water Street on a report of vandalism to vehicles.

A subsequent investigation revealed that sometime between the late evening hours of September 29th and the morning hours of September 30th, unknown person(s) using a sharp instrument punctured the tires on twenty-seven (27) vehicles parked along the westernmost side of South Water Street. Three (3) of the vehicles were parked in private driveways.

During the course of this investigation it was discovered that three (3) vehicles parked on Mead Avenue, an adjacent street, had their outside mirror broken by an unknown instrument.

In a collaborative effort between the Youth Section and the Neighborhood Resource Unit, two (2) local youths were identified as the responsible parties to this vandalizing spree and were subsequently arrested. The replacement cost for twenty-one (21) of the vehicles tires was $4,960.63.

The determination and dedication of these officers in solving this offense speaks volumes of their hard work, pride, which exemplifies the goals of the organization through community-oriented policing.

Congratulations, to Detective Christopher Webster, NRO Keith Hirsch and NRO Robert McKiernan on a job well done.
