

The Greenwich Coalition to Combat Underage Drinking in Coordination with the Selectman's Office Presents:

The Fathers' Forum

A Breakfast Presentation for Dads on Jan. 24th

“Is there Anything Fathers Can Do about Underage Drinking in Greenwich?”

*Facilitated by Family Therapist
John Hamilton, LMFT
Senior Vice President, LMG Programs/Youth Options
and John Hicka, Psychotherapist and Greenwich Parent
and
Jim Marr, Sergeant – GPD and Greenwich Parent*

Mr. Hamilton, Mr. Hicka, and Mr. Marr will share practical tools fathers can use to creatively engage their daughters and sons in meaningful conversations about underage drinking and to influence their decisions about alcohol.

Fathers of middle school and high school children in Greenwich are invited to attend this first meeting of the Fathers' Forum. The Fathers' Forum intends to focus on those issues related to pre-teen and teen development that are of interest to the group.

Saturday morning, January 24th, at the Greenwich YWCA, 259 East Putnam Coffee and Continental Breakfast at 7:30 am sponsored by Garden Catering of Old Greenwich followed by discussion from 8:00-9:30 AM

Please RSVP by Jan. 15th to Stephanie Paulmeno, Greenwich Department of Health, 622-7849, spaulmeno@greenwichct.org or John Hicka –203-698-3430, JHfromCT@aol.com
