Officer of the Month

The Greenwich Police Department has selected Police Officer Joseph Rondini, as it's recipient of the Officer of the Month for March 2006.

During the past month Officer Rondini has actively demonstrated through his police work, efforts to combat and protect our citizens from suffering the tragic loss of life and/or injuries caused by drunk drivers on our public highways.

Officer Rondini's present work efforts, including the past year has resulted in the arrest of forty-three (43) individuals for Driving While Intoxicated in our community.

Officer Rondini's proactive patrol activity has had a great impact on reducing the number of injury-related motor vehicle accidents involving drunk drivers on our local roadways.

Officer Rondini's dedication to his profession and protection of our citizens serves to exemplify one of the goals of this organization, keeping the community safe for all.

Congratulations, to Officer Rondini, whose efforts have played a vital role in keeping drunk drivers off our roads and protecting the citizens of our community.
